AMANKORA

Combining the Sanskrit-derived word for 'peace' with kora, or 'circular pilgrimage' in Dzongkha, Amankora is a series of five lodges across the central and western valleys of Bhutan. The Himalayas' last surviving Buddhist Kingdom, Bhutan is located between the Tibetan Plateau and India, making it one of the most remote and pristine environments on earth. The lodges – in Paro (24 suites), Thimphu (16), Punakha (12), Gangtey (8) and Bumthang (16) – enjoy breathtaking natural settings and combine to offer unique journeys of discovery between them. Guided excursions are part of every Amankora journey, allowing guests to take in such sights as the famous Tiger's Nest.

CENTRAL & WEST

Bangkok / Hua Hin / Pranburi

Getting There & Getting Around

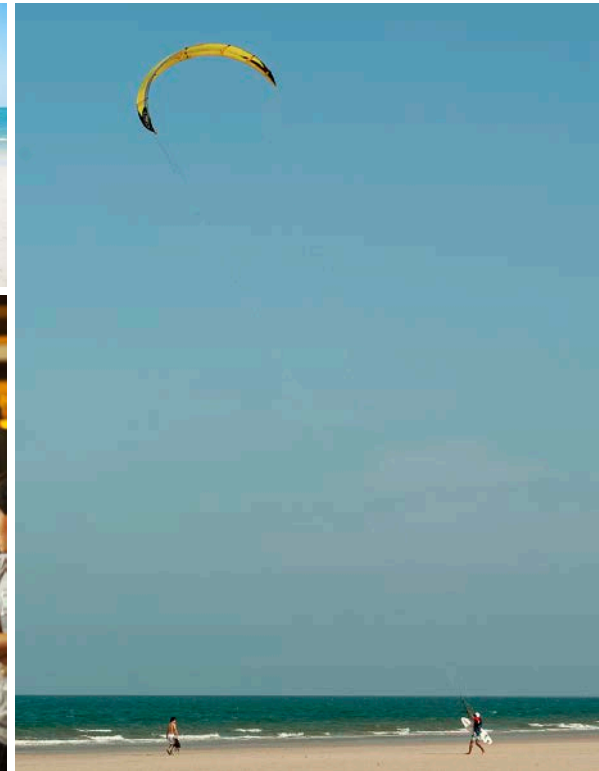

Suvarnabhumi International Airport in Bangkok is a hub for international flights, while Don Muang Airport is a hub for budget airlines for both domestic and international routes. Those wishing to explore the rest of Thailand can easily do so via buses, trains and rental cars from the capital city. If you're looking for a break from the incessant hustle and bustle of Bangkok city, Hua Hin and Pranburi offer the perfect beach escape. Taking Highway No.4 (Petchkasem Road) to the West for a 3-3.5 hour drive, you can restore your sanity and indulge in some peace and quiet.

Discover The City

Millions of tourists are drawn to Bangkok for its rich culture, vibrant nightlife, famed food scene, shopping districts, and affordable activities such as visiting temples and floating markets. There's something for everyone in this bustling yet traditional city, making it a great holiday destination. It would also be pleasing to drive west, to approach a relaxing beach Hua Hin, or another getaway Pranburi. Due to Pranburi's geographic fortune, the area naturally lends itself to outdoor sports for a little fun in the sun. The region is teeming with small businesses offering cycling tours, spelunking, trail running, kite surfing and a host of other outdoor adventures.

Culture & Living Heritage

industry. Its history is linked with the Chao Phraya River, and there are many places of interest to visit, such as temples, the Bang Pa-in Royal Palace and the Bang Sai Royal Folk Arts and Crafts Centre in Ayutthaya Province, and Ko Kret in Nonthaburi Province. Just a two hour drive from Bangkok, a nice stop could be pinned at Khao Wang (Palace Hill), located up on a 92-meter high verdant hill, in the City of Phetchaburi. The highest peak is home of Wat Phra Kaew and the 360 degree views on the top.

In Pranburi, Phraya Nakhon Cave's mystical temple is a bit harder to reach - nestled deep in Khao Sam Roi Yot National Park and requiring a boat and 430-meter hike. The effort is worth it though, as you'll be rewarded with a glittering gem - a structure fit for a treasure-hunt movie. After taking pictures and admiring the view, enjoy a meal at the restaurant near the cave's steps.

Highlight - Happening Events

Bangkok is a bustling city, offering a never-ending array of events each week. April brings the much-anticipated Songkran, the Thai Water Festival, as well as the Chinese New Year celebrations in Chinatown in January. Creative markets, exhibitions, parties and concerts are held in all corners of the city, while the beach offers a truly marvellous jazz experience with the annual Hua Hin International Jazz Festival, held between May and June.

Highlight - Taste of the place

Exploring the vibrant world of Thai street food is an adventure you won't soon forget. Head to Yaowarat in Chinatown, Banglamphu, Wang Lang and Khao San Roads for a culinary journey like no other. In these bustling neighbourhoods, you'll find an abundance of restaurants and bars, from popular spots listed in the MICHELIN guide Bangkok such as Blue by Alain Ducasse, Mezzaluna, cote by Mauro

Colagreco, and Khao Ekkamai, to more recently opened eateries like El Willy Spanish Kitchen, Ojo Bangkok, North Restaurant, and Fran's. If you're looking for something a bit further out of the city, check out the unique cafes in Hua Hin, like Air Space Hua Hin, Srna, 111 Social House, MATAPITA.TEA, and Ob Oon Pâtisserie & Boulangerie. No

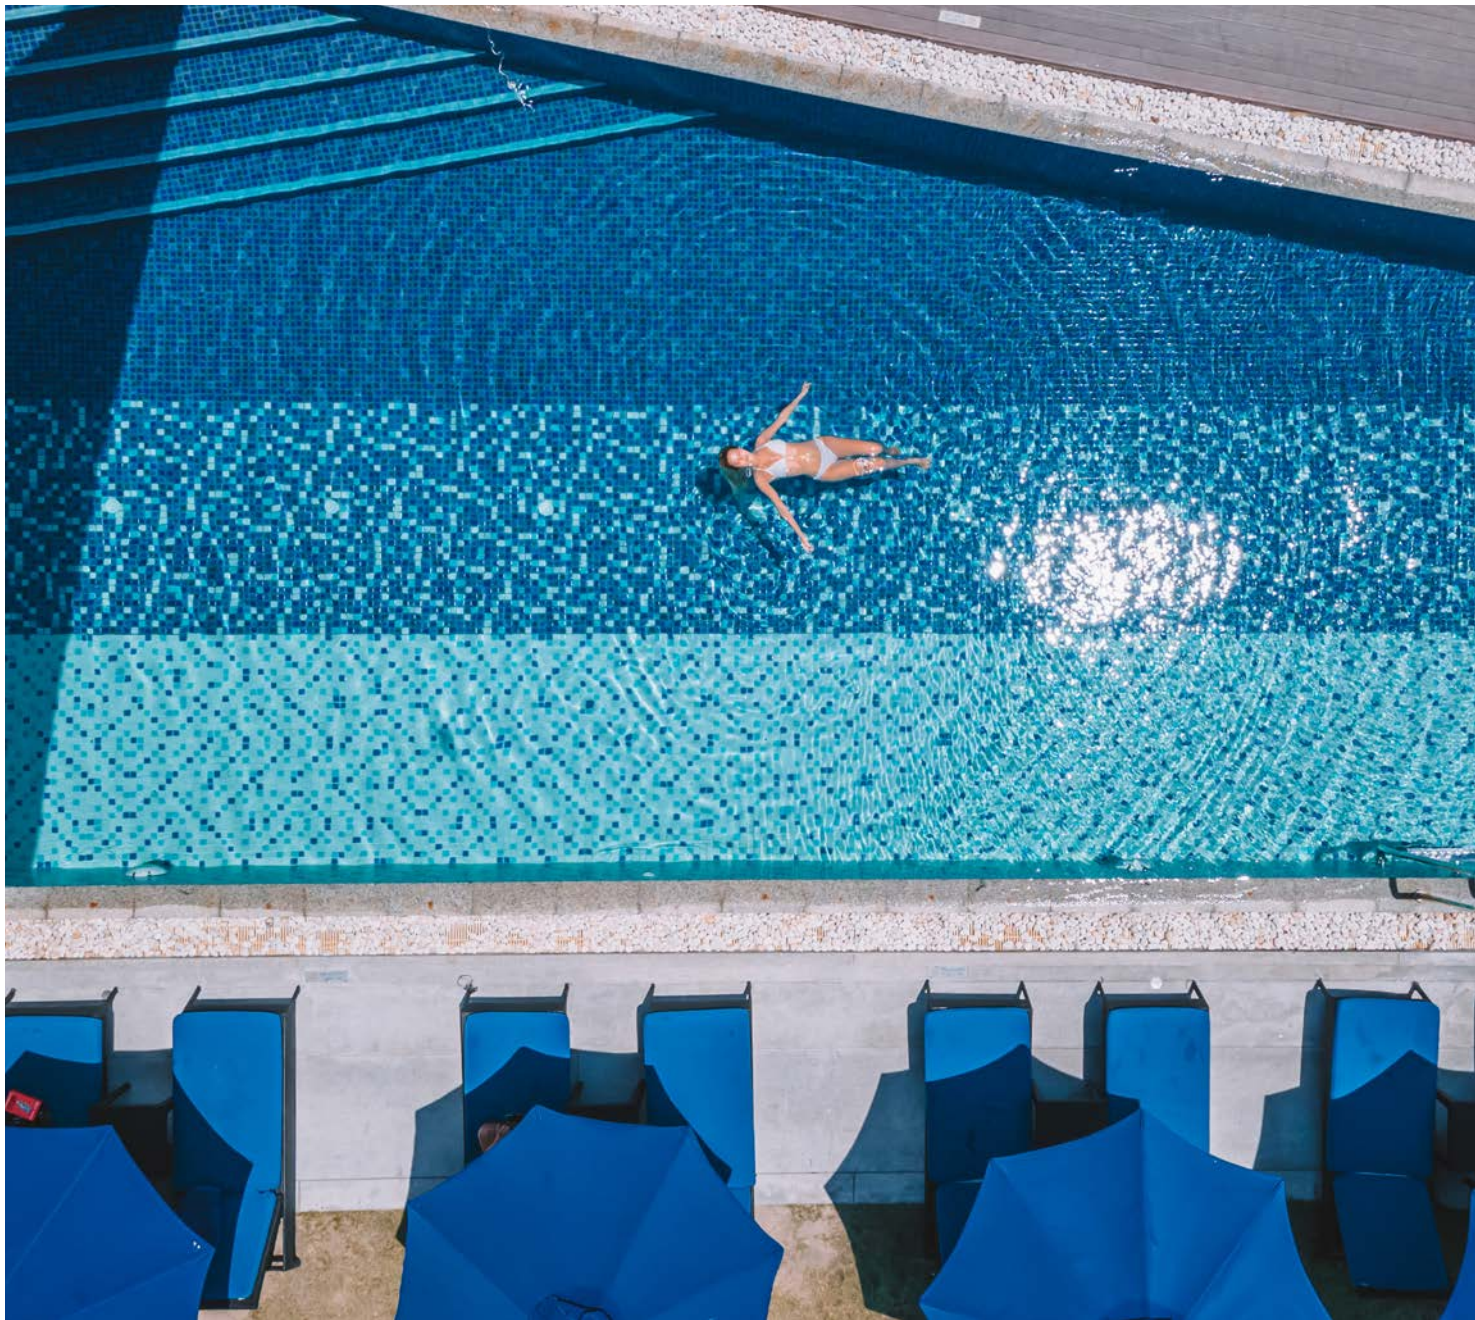

Thai food experience is completed without a visit to classic favourites like Che Khiao Seafood, Krua Phetchaburi, or Nong JJ. If you're on the road to Hua-Hin, you'll drive right by many "khanom-wan" Thai Dessert stores in Phetchaburi. Missing them would be a tragedy, even if you're not a sweet tooth.

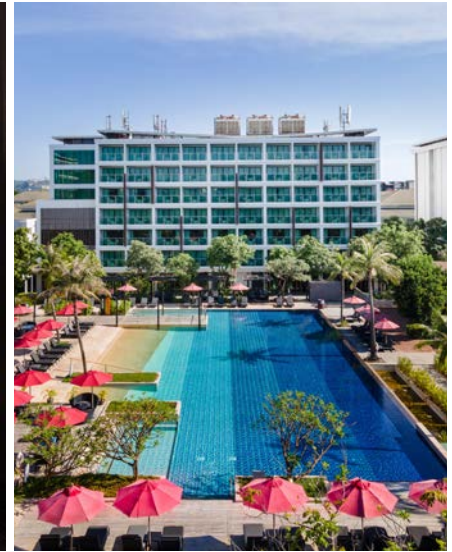

Highlight - Retail Therapy

Discover unique shopping experiences in Bangkok! Asiatique, the most scenic night bazaar, is a must-see with its stunning views of the Chao Phraya River for an unforgettable shopping experience. Of course, no visit is complete without exploring the famous Chatuchak market. For a more relaxed atmosphere, head to Seen-space and Bluport, trendy community malls in Hua Hin, or visit the classic Cicada market and Raruk Hua Hin night market. The Artist Village is the perfect spot for an idyllic afternoon, filled with beautiful and interesting art pieces. Finally, to top off the trip, treat yourself to a luxurious spa day at The Standard Hua Hin or Anantara Spa.

Amari Hua Hin

Amari Hua Hin is located in an idyllic garden setting in Khao Takiab, just two and a half hours from Bangkok. Situated on the glittering Gulf of Thailand, the pristine sand, turquoise sea and surf are all covered. The hotel is only five minutes from Hua Hin Town and Hua Hin Market.

The spaces have been thoughtfully designed for that comforting home-from-home experience with décor showcasing modern Thai architecture, contemporary clean lines and refreshing colour palettes. The hotel revolves around you with a wide range of dedicated spa treatments at Breeze Spa and two swimming pools and a children's pool. For club members, the Executive Club Lounge serves an exceptional selection of evening beverages and appetisers.

EAST

Pattaya / Rayong / Trat / Koh Kood / Koh Chang

Getting There & Getting Around

Experience the idyllic beauty of the Eastern Gulf Coast of Thailand with just a two-hour drive from Bangkok. Take either the Bangkok-Chonburi-Pattaya Motorway (Highway No.7) or Bangna-Trat Highway (Highway No. 34). For those wishing to fly, the U-Tapao air force base is the closest airport, however it is a further drive eastward, and is not a common option.

Discover The City

The East of Thailand is a tiny yet dynamic area, situated along the Gulf of Thailand and bordered by Cambodia. It offers many exciting destinations to explore, from the bustling city of Pattaya, renowned for its beaches and lively nightlife, to the tranquil island of Koh Kood and Koh Chang, with their stunning beaches and unique natural beauty. Rayong and Trat are also worth a visit, with their serene beaches, picturesque cities, and delicious seafood. Exploring these diverse regions of Thailand promises an unforgettable experience.

Culture & Living Heritage

Pattaya has long been known for its wide array of activities, from classic cultural attractions to wild nightlife. During the day, visitors can take a dip in the crystal clear waters of Pattaya or Jomtien Beach, explore the ancient Sanctuary of Truth, marvel at the new Frost Magical Ice of Siam, or cool off at the Ramayana waterpark. For those looking to get creative, there is Hello Van Gogh Pattaya, where you can learn how to paint like a pro, or Underwater World Pattaya, where you can dive with the sharks and manta rays for the experience of a lifetime. At night, the fun continues in the form of lively night clubs, and beach bars along Walking Street. With so many things to do, it's clear to see why it's impossible to get bored in Pattaya.

Rayong, on Thailand's east coast, is an ideal holiday spot for locals looking to escape the hustle and bustle of more popular destinations like Pattaya. With its stunning beaches, including Mae Rumphueng, Suan Son, and Haad Saeng Chan, as well as its close proximity to the tropical island of Koh Samet, Rayong offers a perfect mix of relaxation and exploration for visitors.

Take a break from the world and explore the beauty of Koh Chang and Koh Kood! Dive into the depths of the Koh Rang Marine Park, snorkel the enchanting reefs and relax on the white sand beaches of Lonely and Klong Prao. Trek through jungles and take a dip in the Klong Plu and Than Mayom waterfalls. For a more adventurous experience, take an elephant trek or explore the scuba diving scene off HTMS Chang Wreck, the largest shipwreck in Thailand. Journey to Ao Salad and Ao Yai to immerse yourself in the local fishing villages, or discover the untouched rainforest of Klong Chao Waterfall, complete with ancient trees and a unique ship-like rock formation.

Highlight - Happening Events

Eastern Thailand is more than just a beach destination - it's a hub for international and local events. April brings the Wan Lai Festival, which you can spot over a parade of the Buddha Images. November is home to the Ocean Marina Pattaya Boat Show, and December boasts the Wonderfruit Festival Pattaya, where you can wildly wander through art, culture and music. For a truly unique experience, consider visiting Chonburi in October to witness the Buffalo Races or May to experience the Fruit Festivals.

Highlight - Taste of the place

Pattaya is renowned for its lively attractions, but also offers a great variety of gastronomic experiences. From elegant restaurants like Pippa and Over the Moon to lively beach bars and seafood eateries, like Poo-Pen Seafood, Nangnual, it is guaranteed to satisfy every appetite. The city's newest landmark in Pattaya, House of Benedict, is also worth checking out with its stunning décor

Thanks for picture: www.suaytod.com/post/house-of-benedict and plenty of Instagram-worthy spots. Those island-hopping around the area can find plenty of options in Haad Sai Khao, Bang Bao, and even Koh Kood's fishing villages. For the best of local cuisine, head to Khlong Chao and try the delicious dishes at Viewpoint Cafe, Millionbeach Koh Kood and Le JaoJom Cafe Bistro & Bar.

Highlight - Retail Therapy

Exploring the vibrant street markets of Pattaya is a must-do when visiting Thailand. Theprasit Road Night Market, Jomtien Beach Night Market and Pattaya Night Bazaar offer an array of experiences, from traditional Thai street food to local handcrafted items. For souvenirs, head to Bang Bao in Koh Chang and Ao Salad in Koh Kood, where you can pick up uniquely crafted items. Alternatively, relax and recharge with a spa experience at Luminous Spa at Cape Dara, Dhyana Spa at Anan Anan Resort, or 7 Spa Masha Luxury. With so much to see and do, a day spent exploring the city of Pattaya is sure to be a memorable experience.

SOUTH

Samui / Phuket / Krabi

Getting There & Getting Around

Southern Thailand is a tourist paradise, boasting some of the country's most spectacular attractions and breath-taking scenery. With international airports in Phuket, Krabi, Hat Yai and Koh Samui, as well as domestic flights to and from Bangkok, travellers have a wealth of transportation options to choose from. For longer journeys, there are reliable buses and trains that run all the way to the Thai-Malaysian border. To access the islands, boats are the main mode of transportation.

Discover The City

A tropical getaway to the South is an absolute must-do. From stunning beaches and remarkable islands, greenery mountains to cultural sites and events, and a variety of tantalising food, there is something for everyone. Phuket, Koh Samui, Koh Pha Ngan, Koh Phi Phi, and Koh Tao are the most popular spots, but Nakhon Si Thammarat and Trang have also become increasingly popular. Relax in a beachfront bungalow, dip yourself in a pool villa, explore the forested mountains, enjoy water sports and uncover the region's historic wonders. It's all here, waiting for you to discover.

Culture & Living Heritage

The South is blessed with a plethora of serene beaches and islands, and Phuket is undoubtedly the most popular of them all, with a wide array of beaches and bays including Patong, Kata, Karon, Kamala and Surin. Further out, the Coral and Raya Islands offer a secluded paradise, while the old town of Phuket has a legendary charm all its own. Just north of Phuket lies the tranquil beach town of Khao Lak, with its pleasant and wholesome atmosphere. Phuket is renowned for its culture and exquisite temples, and the iconic Big Buddha stands prominently to the south of the island, a well-known landmark. Exploring the rich culture and colourful history of Phuket is a must for any traveller.

Krabi is a hidden gem of natural beauty and adventure. Take a thrilling journey in a longtail boat to explore the idyllic islands and bays, including Koh Phi Phi, Koh Hong, Koh Poda, Koh Klang, and Cham Island. Enjoy a variety of activities such as diving, sea kayaking, fishing, rubberwood cultivation, and cloth weaving. For a spectacular rock-climbing experience, head to Railay Peninsula. Relax on Nopparat Thara Beach or take an adventurous trekking tour to Dragon Crest. The paradisaical island of Samui offers a breathtakingly diverse range of activities for visitors. From the clear blue seas and white sandy beaches of Nathon, Chaweng, Lamai, Bo Phut, Mae Nam, and Taling Ngam, to Ang Thong National Marine Park for diving and Na Muang Waterfall for swimming, Samui has it all. The main resort towns of Samui have retained their traditional Thai architecture, particularly in Lamai and the Fisherman's Village of Bophut, which has remained largely untouched for decades. Other must-see spots include Hin Yai and Hin Ta, Big Buddha, and the village of Ban Lipa Yai. Island hopping to Koh Tao, Koh Nang Yuan, and Koh Pha Ngan is also possible. Samui offers something for everyone; come and experience it for yourself!

June is the time for the Baba (Peranakan) Wedding Festival, a traditional event to celebrate the marriage of two people. March brings the Laanta-Lanta Festival, a traditional cultural event in Krabi, followed in April by the Krabi International Rock-Climbing competition. NORTH & NORTH EAST

Chiang Rai / Chiang Mai / Khao Yai

Getting There & Getting Around

Chiang Mai International Airport serves as the main gateway to Northern Thailand. Domestic connections with Bangkok and other cities make travel to the region easy and convenient, or you can take the 8-hour drive along Highway No. 1 (Phahonyothin Road) for a more leisurely journey. You can also turn right onto Highway No. 2 (Mittraphap Road) to access the North East.

Discover The City

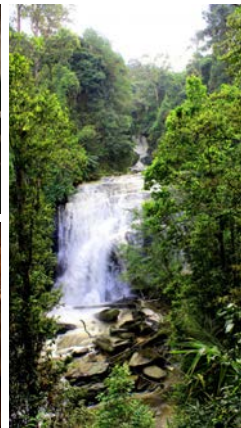

Northern Thailand is a stunningly diversified place, with natural beauty, cultural sites, and exciting activities scattered throughout the region. From the majestic mountains of Chiang Mai to the flat plains of Northeast, the mountains and cooler climate offer the perfect backdrop for trekking, visiting hill tribes, and taking in the tea plantations and strawberry fields. Chiang Mai and Chiang Rai are two of the most popular cities in the region and Khao Yai is the gateway to the Northeast. Khao Yai is known for its nature preserve and resort town atmosphere. No matter what type of adventure you are looking for, Northern Thailand is the perfect place to explore.

Culture & Living Heritage

Chiang Mai is a city rich in culture, history, and natural beauty. As the former capital of the Lanna Kingdom, the city is home to hundreds of ancient temples, with Wat Phra That Doi Suthep as a must-see highlight. The province also boasts seven national parks with plenty of activities like waterfall and cave attractions, hill tribe village visits and even stargazing at night. For those preferring a trendier holiday, head to Nimmanhaemin Road, where chic bars, cafes, restaurants and shops await. During the summer, make sure to check out Mae Wang for a fun rafting adventure, or Grand Canyon Water Park for outdoor adrenaline activities.

Head to Chiang Rai for a cultural and natural odyssey. Immerse yourself in the area's beauty by visiting the White Temple, the Black House, the Blue Temple, and Doi Tung Villa. Nature lovers should not miss the chance to explore Phu Chi Fa and Phu Chi Dao forest park. For a unique experience, visit Doi Chang, a paradise for coffee lovers. Choui Fong Tea Farm and Singha Park offer the perfect spot for an unhurried day.

If you are looking for a quick escape from Bangkok, Khao Yai is the perfect destination. Only a three-hour drive away you can find yourself immersed in Mediterranean and Italian vibes at Primo Piazza. At PB Valley Khao Yai Winery you can sample delicious wines and savour fine cuisine. To top off the experience, you can take in the beautiful sight of the never-ending flower fields at Hokkaido Flower Park Khao Yai, truly offering an unforgettable experience for all.

Highlight - Happening Events

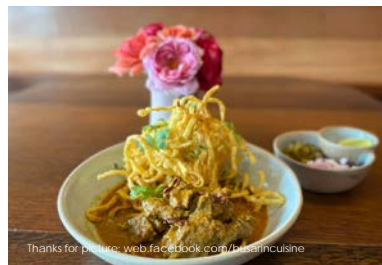

Before planning a trip to any of these cities, travellers should take into account the different events that take place throughout the year. In the northern city of Chiang Mai, visitors can experience the traditional Yi Peng Festival of Lights in November, as well as the modern Thailand International Balloon Festival and Chiang Mai Design Week in December. For those travelling to Chiang Rai, the King Meng Rai Festival transports guests back to the time of the Lanna Kingdom, while the Thailand International Jazz Festival brings contemporary culture to the city. For those planning a trip to Khao Yai, they should plan their visit between December to February, when the annual flower festival at Jim Thompson Farm takes place.

Highlight - Taste of the place

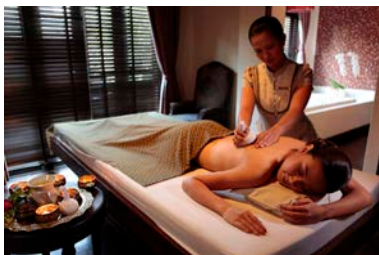

Since ancient times, the Northern region of Thailand has been renowned for its unique and flavourful cuisine. For visitors to the area, there are a variety of restaurants, cafes, and eateries to choose from. For those looking for an authentic experience, Busarin Cuisine in Chiang Mai, and PAAM Sai-Aua in Chiang Rai are excellent choices. Additionally, trendy cafes, such as Eley Cafe, Mae Ping Bistro, NatureTalk, and Abonzo Coffee, are great options for those seeking a more tranquil experience. In Khao Yai, El Cafe Khaoyai is a must-visit, with its spectacular mountain view. Finally, for those in the mood for a hearty meal, Tawe Farm Khaoyai, The Gardener Khaoyai, and Sirena Italian Restaurant are all excellent restaurants to name a few.

Highlight - Retail Therapy

Chiang Mai is renowned for its spas, which offer a unique Lanna twist. For those looking to be pampered, Ping Nakara and Zira Spa, winner of multiple awards, are top choices. If you're looking for something even more special, then head over to Ban Rai Kong Khing Community in Hang Dong district for a local massage. Don't forget to check out the night bazaars and walking streets, but also don't miss out on other great places, like One Nimman, a creative community in Chiang Mai, and Art Bridge in Chiang Rai or Outlet Village in Khao Yai. Enjoy the perfect blend of relaxation and adventure in Northern Thailand.

Ping Nakara Boutique Hotel & Spa

Ping Nakara Boutique Hotel & Spa is built in Lanna Colonial style with meticulous attention to detail. Many years of research went into the design and construction of the building, and now we have documented our findings in the book "Lanna Colonial: A Return to Elegance". The book introduces the origins of the style and contains many pictures and drawings of Chiang Mai and North Thailand's buildings in the style. Here is the final chapter of the book, covering the design and construction of Ping Nakara. The book is available for sale in local bookstores and direct from the hotel. The 'Ping Nakara' is located in the prime tourist area of downtown Chiang Mai. Close by the Ping River, the hotel is within a few minutes easy walk to major tourist attractions such as the night bazaar (open everyday from 6-11 pm), the city's main fresh market, and the pier from which river cruises depart.
